

VESTA WINES

VESTA RESTAURANT & BAR

WINES

SPARKLING

	125ml	Bottle
Botter Prosecco Spumante DOC, Italy Light, delicate with gentle fruit flavours, this is an elegant fizz for the price.	£4.35	£24.95
Chandon Brut NV, Argentina By the makers of Moët & Chandon, this is dangerously drinkable. Crisp, refreshing with juicy citrus and fine bubbles.	£6.25	£35
Divici Prosecco Spumante Organic, Italy Fresh, youthful and ideal to drink on its own or with light first courses. It's simply lovely and earns bonus points for being organic too!		£28.95
Chandon Brut Rose, Argentina Possibly prettier in pink, the Chandon Brut Rose is subtle, toasty and fine with a hint of cherry.		£36
Exton Park Rose NV, England Mmmmmm, berries and cream. Sink into summer with this bubbly that gives any champagne a run for its money.		£42

CHAMPAGNE

Moët & Chandon Brut Imperial, France There's a reason why Moët Imperial is one of the most iconic champagnes out there. Rich, glamorous and vibrant, enjoy anytime, anywhere and with anything!		£65
Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label, France Full bodied and beautifully balanced, Veuve Yellow oozes class. No wonder it's a multi award winning champagne.		£70
Ruinart Brut, France Remarkable. Elegant and subtle, its one of the jewels in Champagne's crown.		£95

ROSE

	175ml	250ml	Bottle
Botter Pinot Grigio Rose, Italy Light, dry, it's pink and pinot. The perfect combination!	£4.35	£6.25	£18.50
Roque Star Cotes De Provence Rose, France A delightfully lively wine. It's fresh, fruity and super tasty.	£5.75	£8.25	£24.50

WHITE

	175ml	250ml	Bottle
Botter Senso Trebbiano, Italy Light, crisp and refreshing. Very gluggable.	£4.35	£6.25	£18.50
Dusty Road, Coastal, Chenin Blanc, South Africa Bursting with tropical flavours, easy going yet crisp and dry. Enjoy on its own or with a light lunch perhaps?	£4.70	£6.725	£19.95
The Pitmaster Viognier, Limestone Coast, Australia Lovely, lively, fresh wine with hint of aromatic fruit, touch of clotted cream and to top it off, it's bottled in lightweight eco glass. A winner.	£ 5.30	£7.55	£22.50
Villa Molino Pinot Grigio delle Venezie, Italy A great sip. Oh so crisp with a pop of fruit, it's hard to resist a second glass.	£5.10	£7.25	£21.50
Santa Ema Sauvignon Blanc Select Terroir Reserva, Malpo Valley, Chile From a renowned 'Fair for Life' producer, Santa Ema is dry, crisp, zesty and will get your taste buds racing!	£5.40	£7.75	£22.95
Goyenechea Chardonnay, Mendoza, Argentina It's unoaked so the fruit really shines through. From a producer who funds housing and school projects, it's a wonderful wine, through and through.			£22
La Combe Rouge Picpoul De Pinet, France An engaging summer sipper with bright, flavours of apple and pear. Watch it come into its own with seafood.			£24.95
Finca Constancia Parcela 52 Verdejo, Vino De La Tierra De Castilla, Spain Outstanding. There's citrus and melon flavours. It's crisp and rich but you don't have to be to enjoy it			£26
Jackson Green Lip Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand Named after their famous green lip mussels, this sauvignon effortlessly pairs with seafood. Tropical, succulent and simply lovely.			£29.50
Veiga Naúm Albariño, Bogegas Riojanas, Spain Bone dry and aromatic, this is a wee belter. Energising and fruit driven with white peach, apricot & pineapple notes.			£32
Woodstock Mary Mctaggart Riesling, Australia A very presentable limey New World style riesling. It's rich, generous and floral with a hint of spice.			£34
Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough, New Zealand Still a stand out wine. Summery and full of fresh herbal aromas. Superbly refreshing and a great match to everything from steaks to seitan.			£40
Terrazas Reserva Chardonnay, Argentina Smooth, stylish, this is a rich and round white. Full body. Bright finish. Delicious.			£42

RED

	175ml	250ml	Bottle
Botter Senso Sangiovese, Italy Blueberry, plum deliciousness. Dry, medium bodied, maybe too easy to drink!	£4.35	£6.25	£18.50
Red Rock Shiraz, South Eastern Australia Oooft. Velvety and rich, delivering a stunning smooth finish. Its price, and the fact it's produced by a carbon minus bottler, makes this a true winner.	£5.10	£7.25	£21.50
Mureda Organic Merlot, Castilla La Mancha, Spain Top of the class for this merlot. Hugely quaffable with a pleasant red fruit punch and touch of black pepper. It's 100% organic too.	£5.40	£7.75	£22.95
Goyenechea Centenario Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina A smoky, fruity delight that's spicy, warming and full bodied. Make yourself comfortable, you'll be supping this for a while.	£5.75	£8.20	£24.50
Bodegas Campillo El Nino Joven, Rioja, Spain Young, modern and very approachable. On its own or with food, this is a cracking 'all-rounder', full of juicy red fruits and a whiff of toasted vanilla.	£6.35	£8.85	£26.50
La Doutelle Grenache, IGP, Pays d'Oc So flavoursome with red fruit flavours and a wee hint of white pepper. Spicy and full bodied, this is fabulous with chargrilled meats.			£21
Torreón de Paredes Carmenere Reserva, Cachapoal, Chile This producer has supported generations of families and their red is equally as generous with its flavours. Soft tannins and jammy red berry fruits make this wine too easy to enjoy!			£25
Cosmina Pinot Noir, Romania An instant crowd pleaser, packed with apple and melon and a soft, velvety finish.			£26
Schola Sarmenti Roccamora Negromaro, DOC Nardo, Italy Rich, dense, oozing in black cherries, paprika and cola, and wrapped up in silky-soft tannins and juicy acidity. A hugely intoxicating and original sip.			£29
Rift 69 Gamay Noir, Loron et Fils, France What's not to like? It's sulphite free for a start with a beautiful blackberry and herb nose. Bold and brilliant with a satisfyingly long finish.			£30
Small Lot Blend Cabernet Sauvignon, Mendocino County, USA Wonderful. It's spicy and warming with currants, plum and vanilla. A full bodied hug in a glass.			£32
Terrazas Reserva Malbec, Argentina Pronounced tannins and a really full body mean that this isn't a wine for the faint hearted. But oh, does it go well with our succulent steak!			£36

